Product description

Used and fully collapsible large-volume bucket with three skids and a capacity of 675 liters. This bin is stackable when folded and unfolded. The large volume box is made of polypropylene and has closed walls and a closed bottom. Features one flap on one long side for easy access to contents. Features a lockable lid with a slide/hinge system. Are you temporarily not using them? Then you can easily stack these storage boxes collapsed which provides a significant volume reduction.
