Technical information

Productnumber : 61-ITPE250

Product description

The blue lacquered transport pallet in block pallet format is a flexible and durable solution for your internal transport. The stackable pallet on legs is aimed at better organizing the work floor. The construction consists of steel tube profiles with a spruce bottom plate. The pallet can be used as a separate pallet, but is also suitable as a transport box. Standard walls can be used for this (see below under 'can be combined with'). weight)
